AAUW Del Mar-Leucadia Branch Founded 1955

Advancing equity for women & girls through education and advocacy

The Del Mar-Leucadia branch of AAUW is pleased to announce our 2018-2019 meeting schedule and invite all members to come out, reconnect, and get in motion with our theme for the year, Rights at Risk: Time for Action! Each month we'll be looking more closely at many of the rights achieved through the years and learn how to recognize challenges while also discovering opportunities available to appropriately counter and reject any attempts to take away or slow down our progress.

On September 8, 2018, we will present EDUCATION / Title IX - Challenges and Opportunities featuring guest speaker Cori Schumacher, who will discuss challenges and opportunities presented by Title IX, the landmark federal civil rights law passed 46 years ago which provides for gender equality in education. AAUW strongly supports the vigorous enforcement of Title IX and all other civil rights laws pertaining to education. Schumacher is a Carlsbad City Council member, a social and environmental justice activist, published author, and a three-time Women's World Longboard Champion.

Bring your smart phone, laptop, or other device and participate in this month's Call to Action! in support of Title IX by Taking the Pledge to Protect Title IX. Plus, learn more about upcoming events, including interest groups. Meet current board members, learn about upcoming special events and get engaged by joining one (or more) of our branch committees. And pick up your new directory! There will also be a short business meeting including a member vote on proposed 2018-19 Branch Budget (see p. 13). The meeting time will be 10 a.m. to noon at the Encinitas Community Center. Bring a friend!

In October, the countdown begins, and our team is ready to remind you that, MIDTERMS MATTER: Get Informed! Get Out the Vote! With valuable information on the issues, skillful interpretation of messaging from the candidates, the League of Women Voters will get us ready to take on the polls in politically savvy condition.

November is the month of Thanksgiving! On Veteran's Day Weekend this year, let's shout out thanks to the WOMEN of the MILITARY--Active duty, retired, spouses, children--Often overlooked, this population will have plenty to share. Up close and personal, barracks, battlefield, privacy, children left behind.

Members are encouraged to find at least one action (active response) to support the theme each month. You'll be surprised how much you can accomplish! - by Patricia Johnson-Khalifa, Programs Director

Time for Action - Title IX

Title IX is essential to ensuring that our schools are free from discrimination, including sexual harassment and violence. But recently, Secretary of Education Betsy DeVos took action to roll back protections for survivors of sexual assault.

Later this year, the Department of Education is expected to change Title IX's regulations, which could have significant implications for students' civil rights and federal enforcement of the law. With progress under threat, we all must be ready to make our voices heard.

Help fight back against attacks on Title IX by pledging to take part in AAUW's upcoming campaign to protect Title IX.

Get AAUW's timely reminders, tools, talking points, and resources to help you maximize your impact once the Department of Education kicks off the regulatory process. Together we can make a difference.

Take the Pledge to Protect Title IX

Why Title IX Matters

Norelynn Pion-Goureau, Branch Public Policy Director

June 26 of this year was the 46th anniversary of Title IX, the landmark bill which provides for gender equality in education. AAUW and the League of Women Voters are launching campaigns to ratify the Equal Rights Amendment to the Constitution, which will finally guarantee equal rights to women under the United States Constitution. Representatives Patsy T. Mink and Doris Matsui have introduced the Gender Equality Act \(GEEA\) to ensure that schools and educational institutions comply with this landmark civil rights law by giving additional resources, training and technical assistance on the ground to Title IX coordinators.

A new study from Yale has tracked how the use of Title IX has changed over the years with varying emphasis on discrimination in education and athletics as well as in defending women against sexual harassment. Title IX complaints to the U.S. Department of Education have skyrocketed in the last 15 years. The AAUW Title IX Delivery Project and the Title IX Coordinator toolkit for K-12 schools provide the latest data released by the U.S. Department of Education Civil Rights Data Collection.

HOW CAN YOU TAKE ACTION? AAUW has been active in supporting passage of the GEEA by visiting 60 Senate offices in June to advocate for passage of the bill. AAUW members should contact their legislators to urge them to support the GEEA, which will establish an Office of Gender Equality at the Department of Education to coordinate action, authorize competitive grants to K-12, colleges and local educational agencies or states to support gender equity work. Contact: Sen. Dianne Feinstein at (202) 224-3841 and Sen. Kamala Harris at (202) 224-3553. Go to AAUW Two-Minute Activist for scripted ideas.

AAUW is proud to be launching our new strategic plan — Beyond Aspirations: Advancing Equity for Women and Girls.

2018 Strategic Plan

Mission:

To advance gender equity for women and girls through research, education, and advocacy.

Vision:

Equity for all.

Values:

Nonpartisan.
Fact-based.

Closing the gender gap in leadership opportunities.

Ensuring the strength, relevance, and viability of AAUW well into the future.

Specific goals and objectives for each area are outlined in the full plan, available here.

Every single member can make a difference. In the coming weeks, months, and years, there are countless opportunities to get involved and be leaders within your community, at the state level, and throughout the nation to advance our mission towards meaningful results.

On behalf of the AAUW board and the national staff, thank you for your support and commitment to AAUW and for all you do to advance gender equity. Today, this plan gives us our path forward. Together, we can — and will — lead the change we want to achieve.

Updates from Sharon and Andrea

The summer of 2018 will probably go on the record books as one of the warmest on record, and things were heating up for us as well! We held a half-day retreat on August 11 for the new AAUW Del Mar-Leucadia Branch board, and things really got cookin' as we reviewed the AAUW National Strategic Goals and had a lively discussion focused on our own branch goals and initiatives for 2018-19 (See "AAUW Del Mar-Leucadia Branch Strategic Goals in Action" article on p. 5).

After reviewing the feedback on our Member Survey and the calls to action from our AAUW National leadership, it has become apparent that our branch is perfectly positioned to take the next step from Being at the Table to now actively participating in the process of advocating for equity to fulfill AAUW's vision of Equity for All. We are forging ahead with renewed energy and purpose on a theme-based mission for our branch--Time for Action!

To that end, we are asking all our AAUW Del Mar-Leucadia branch members to become actively engaged in the activities that our branch is planning for the coming year. We want to encourage everyone to attend the first in our series of programs on September 8 that are designed to promote your active participation in ensuring that the rights of women and girls are protected through non-partisan and fact-based initiatives. Each event that we hold will include steps that you can take to make a difference.

This issue of The Coastline is spotlighting Simply Delicious, Novel Lovers, Fun-Food-& Friends, and Out-to-Lunch Bunch. Email newsletter@aauwdml.org to have your group featured in a future issue.

Simply Delicious rounded out another year of warm-hearted dinners and good friendship with the annual wine tasting party on July 15 at the home of Jan and Tom English. Judy and Gary Newton selected 4 rosé wines to taste and compare (2 from Provence, 1 from Italy, and 1 from Germany) and taught us about the history and production of rosé wines. Ara Kaloustian conducted the scoring. The clear favorite was Le Cengle 2017 from Cotes de Provence, a blend of Syrah, Genache Noir, and Mouveddre Delicte. Tasting was followed by appetizers and desserts brought by the 16 participants. We invite branch members to join Simply Delicious for this coming year to enjoy good friendship, 8 simply delicious (and easy to prepare) dinners for 8, and other gatherings. For information or to sign up, email Joanna Schwend, jwschwend@yahoo.com.

Message from Nancy Mahr, AAUW CA Public Policy Chair

Kim Churches, AAUW CEO, sent out a statement (see below) relating to the current Supreme Court nominee, Brett Kavanaugh. AAUW has suggested that members contact our CA federal Senators in support of this position. publicpolicy@aauw-ca.org

WASHINGTON — AAUW Chief Executive Officer Kimberly Churches released the following statement announcing AAUW's opposition to the confirmation of Judge Brett Kavanaugh to the U.S. Supreme Court:

“AAUW’s expectation is that our next Supreme Court justice will support the fundamental rights of all individuals and understand that his or her decisions have a very real impact on the daily lives of women and their families. After careful review of Judge Brett Kavanaugh’s available record, it is clear to us that he would not be that justice. Judge Kavanaugh’s record shows that he is willing to do grave harm by undermining positions central to AAUW’s mission, including upending employment and labor rights, opposing reproductive rights and access to health care, entangling public education and religion, and restricting voting rights. The Supreme Court is the arbiter of so many of the rights essential to women and girls, and if confirmed Judge Kavanaugh will have a say in those decisions for decades to come. Therefore, AAUW opposes Judge Kavanaugh’s confirmation to the Supreme Court.

On the specifics of his available record, Judge Kavanaugh confirmation would put women’s constitutional rights, including abortion, at risk. He has shown opposition to women’s access to reproductive health care and contraception, seeking to delay a woman’s access to an abortion, arguing in support of religious employers who obstruct their employees’ access to contraceptive coverage, and calling into question protections of the Affordable Care Act.

Judge Kavanaugh has shown little support for workers’ rights, including low-wage workers and workers of color. While on the bench, Judge Kavanaugh argued to weaken protections for race and age discrimination, as well as to narrow prohibitions against retaliation. He routinely argued to limit workers’ rights to organize and to narrow the scope of our nation’s labor laws. He has consistently sided with employers and against workers, refusing to support those who seek to improve workplace conditions and to protect those who have experienced discrimination.

While we continue to urge that Judge Kavanaugh’s full record be released to the American public, his available record makes clear that he stands in opposition to the values and mission of AAUW. He is the wrong choice for the Supreme Court and for women and girls. Now more than ever we need a Supreme Court justice who is not beholden to ideology and will be an independent voice. The role the next justice will play in all of our lives is too important for anything less.”

New Member Spotlight – Kelly Allan

As a student at CSU San Marcos, Kelly was actively involved in the AAUW student organization. She is a recipient of “Give a Grad a Gift” upon graduation and we are elated that she chose to be a member of AAUW Del Mar-Leucadia branch!

Kelly is devoted to helping people. She started an organization in her community called Caregiver Networks Club. It’s for caregivers and family members to share stories and resources.

Shortly after Kelly joined our branch, she accepted the position of College/University Relations Chair. It is perfectly suited for her and our branch, in that she will be a liaison between our branch and CSU San Marcos. It is a win-win situation because she will work with the student organization that is familiar to her, guiding and encouraging them to continue their involvement with AAUW after graduation.

Welcome to AAUW, Kelly!

Have you been thinking of getting involved but didn't want to make a major time commitment?

How about one day for one month?

At each Branch meeting, we have water, juice, coffee, snacks - and I need people to pick up the treats, to help set up (put out cups, plates, napkins) and to clean up (garbage to trash containers). If you'd like to volunteer to bring snacks, that would be awesome, but not necessary.

Just one Saturday meeting per year! Can you help?
